

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY

COMMUNICATION VOLUNTEER

Main role and function

Are you a rewilding communicator, passionate about spreading information and awareness on rewilding, and empowering fellow young people to join the movement? Are you good/passionate about content creation, videomaking or graphic design? We are seeking enthusiastic individuals to join our dynamic team as Communication Volunteers. This is a fantastic opportunity to contribute your skills and creativity to a cause that matters. You will have the chance to work closely with our team to create compelling content that inspires and educates.

Main responsibilities

This role entails the following responsibilities and commitments (to be shared with the rest of the team):

- Develop engaging and visually appealing content (posts, videos) for our social media channels, mainly Instagram.
- Write captions and texts for our educational posts starting from your own ideas and/or on agreed rewilding topics.
- Interact with the members and online community via social media.
- Assist in the execution of social media campaigns to promote specific efforts/topics.
- Direct and provide information for young people in a specific country which are interested in rewilding.
- Partner with other social media account for collaborative posts.
- Develop and execute other type of content depending on your interests (reels, quizzes, IG takeovers etc.)

Profile

- You are between 18 and 30 years old.
- You have good knowledge in rewilding.
- You have excellent spoken and written English.
- You are creative and proactive in advancing ideas and following them up.
- You are reliable.
- You are able to commit around 3-5 hours per week to the role.
- You have some background and/or experience in any of the following: copywriting, content creation, graphic design, video making and social media campaigns.
- ... but mostly, you support and share the rewilding vision!

What we offer

- Support from the EYR coordinator and the rest of the team (both other communication volunteers and national contacts).
- You will be part of the EYR volunteer team together with like-minded young people;
- You will be part of an exciting initiative aimed at engaging young people with rewilding.
- You will have the chance to develop your own ideas on our platform.
- You will benefit from professional contacts in the field of rewilding and have access to information about webinars, conferences and events that might be of interest.
